Friday 9th
Little Chefs

Little hands love to create and there's no better way to do that than in the kitchen. Help your little ones on their road to mastering their cooking skills with today's crazy cooking experiences. To start the day off we will make some healthy chocolate bliss balls. Then the little ones will get crafty- creating fruit snakes using strawberries and bananas as well as grape sculptures. Throughout the day the children will bake sugar free cupcakes and finish the day off with a mini jello- aquarium.

Monday 12th
Giant Games

Today is a Giant Day. The "Giant Games" incursion is coming to provide us with an abundance of giant games including inflatable board games and group challenges. In the afternoon, the children will participate in an enormous domino and chess competition as well as a giant number fishing experience. To end the day, the children will make a gigantic cookie to eat with their friends.

Tuesday 13th
Reptile Rock

Today "Raptor Reptiles" are back sharing their knowledge of all things creepy crawlly. From stick insects to tarantulas and even giant cockroaches and scorpions. Raptor reptiles have them all. In the afternoon we will be making sugar free spider treats and mini insect habitats in our school garden. .

Wednesday 14th
Go Karts2U

It's time to speed up and find out if you are the fastest child at Highfields. In the morning we will leave for our excursion to play with go-karts and have a peaceful lunch in the park. During the afternoon, the children will return to the service and create their own cars out of recycled cardboards and engage in a crazy sack race. To finish the day, the children will be making their own delicious edible car.

Thursday 15th
Buster the Balloonatic

Calling all crazy clowns and amazing acrobats to come and join our spectacular circus for a day of dynamic adventure. Our day will begin with "Buster the Balloonatic", who will provide a hilarious, interactive presentation for the children. To make the day even better, the children will also play with hula hoops and learn some tricky stunts and engaging in a circus tent craft. To finish the day, they will be making clowns by using pizza dough.

Friday 16th
Ninja Warrior

Today the children will be challenged with an abundance of fun physical activities. The day will start off with an elaborate ninja warrior course dispersed throughout the Highfields playground, building on the fixed environment with a range of materials. The children will explore the concept of healthy eating with a blindfolded taste test whilst our educators talk about the importance of healthy eating. To finish the day the children will learn some staple martial arts moves.

Monday 19th
Super Sleuths

Today the Children will become detectives for the day by solving mysteries and saving lives. In the morning "Eye spy" is coming and a "Secret Agent" will show the children how to become real detectives. During the day the children will also make their own spy tools such as magnifying glasses and binoculars. In the afternoon the children will be solving the mystery of the missing teddy bear as well as trying to get out of the escape room.

Tuesday 20th
Splashtastic

Come join us today for an assortment of water-based games and activities for everyone to get involved in. Today, "Water Warriors" are coming to provide the children with the best water play, which will include nerf water, super soakers, and even inflatables. In the afternoon, the children will be making their own edible ice blocks, and lastly engage in a water ballistic balloon battle.

Wednesday 21st
Christmas Spectacular

Today is all about the most magical time of the year. Christmas. "Christmas bubbles" is coming to present a hilarious Christmas spectacular that will provide giggles, magic, and bubble shapes. In the morning we will be making and decorating unique gingerbread biscuits and creating a funny elf paper plate craft. During the afternoon the children will write Christmas cards for their families and friends and play group games such as, Pin the nose on the reindeer, Simon says (Santa says), and Christmas Bingo.

Thursday 22nd
Lazer Tag

Allow your child the opportunity to become a part of exciting team building activities. To start our day off the children will participate in a Laser tag incursion, which is a fully immersive experience that simulates a real gaming arena. Throughout the day, children will also be making their own warrior Armor as well as create their own soldier from scratch. To end the day, the children will be making their own edible sword.

Children need to pack morning tea, lunch and afternoon tea.

Please ensure children are wearing closed in shoes, weather appropriate clothing, hat and bring a refillable drink bottle.
